and ended. During which term the said Apprentice his Master faithfully shall serve, his secrets keep, and his lawful commands obey;—he shall do no damage to his said Master or his Goods, nor suffer it to be done by others, but shall forthwith give notice to his said Master of the same, when necessary;—he shall not waste the Goods of his said Master, nor lend them unlawfully to any; nor shall he do any act whereby his said Master may sustain any loss, with his own Goods or others' during the said term;—without Licence of his said Master, he shall neither buy nor sell during his Apprenticeship; nor shall he absent himself from his said Master's service day or night unlawfully; but in all things as a faithful Apprentice shall behave himself towards his said Master and others, during the said term. And the said

George Lupton

Business of Carpenter his said Apprentice in the Art, Trade, or which he useth by the best means in his power shall teach and instruct or cause to be taught and instructed;—the said Charles James Locke and will pay the said Apprentice the Wages following—that is to say

- 1st year, six shillings per week 6/-
- 2nd year nine shillings per week 9/-
- 3rd year twelve shillings per week 12/-
- 4th year sixteen shillings per week 16/-

These presents shall be handed over to the said Charles James Locke on the completion of the said term, with a Certificate of such service endorsed thereon.
AND for the true performance of all and every of the said Covenants and Agreements the said Parties bind themselves by these Presents. IN WITNESS whereof the said parties have hereunto set their Hands and Seals the day and year first above written.
